Tented, Bush Retreat

This rustic camp site, 256 km from Cape Town, is located on a small holding that farms organically and sustainably. We offer an authentic, bush-camping experience, with the luxury of sleeping in a comfortable bed without the fuss and hassle of pitching your own tent.

There are three, fully-equipped, self-catering, rustic, tented-accommodation and three, bring your own equipment, basic, pre-pitched tents under the trees along a stream.

The bush retreat is midway (30km) between Swellendam and Heidelberg on the N2. Taking the Suurbraak turn-off to Rietkuil, a 5 km dirt road through a number of small holdings arriving at !Xairu Tradu on farm 513 Rietkuil.

Completely off-grid, with rain-harvested water, solar-powered lighting & sun-heated water to bathe. There's a composting toilet & no refrigerator nor cell-phone signal but loads of fresh air, shade, fire wood, peace and quiet, with only annoying bugs, honey bees, bird-chatter, frogs and the odd meandering farm animal to contend with.

!Xairu Tradu tented bush retreat, offers environmentally conscious individual/s, a unique, break-away experiences. Surrounded by nature in a rustic, but relatively basic, comfortable, camping facility. Come and enjoy quality time being amongst the trees, in the shadow of hills and mountains, and under the most amazing night sky.

Being COVID-conscious, tents are far from one another. Inhale the clean, fresh air amongst the olive & lemon trees.

Spend some quiet time in meditation & contemplation, observe the more than 50 bird species, including blue cranes, humming birds & raptor in the area, detect the Cape Clawless Otter, Cape Fox, Scrub Hares, angulated tortoise, Grysbok, Southern Rock Agama, bats & mongoose that share this space with our chickens, sheep & cattle.

For the adventure-seekers, hike the many trails, hire a horse, mount your mountain bike. Or go on a host of daily excursion to visit Swellendam Heidelberg, Barrydale, Witsands, Suurbraak, Langeberg mountain range, Breede & Buffelsjag rivers and mores, or just explore the farm, walk the foothills or ramble at leisure.

Alternatively arrange to attend a local art-class, bread-baking, some horse whispering, a Renosterveld Conservation tour, bush-yoga or sampling some locally distilled Limoncello liquor or Kombucha.

Or just come and chill!
